The Quarry Rules

All questions, suggestions or problems are to be referred to Sharon Collins (330-657-2861)
www.thequarry.org

- Everyone must sign in. A responsible person 16 years of age or older must accompany all children 12 and under.
- A “Family” is defined as all people residing within a household and excludes family members who live outside the household.
- Absolutely no pets are allowed on the premises, including the parking lot. No pets are to be left inside cars.
- No alcoholic beverages or glass containers are allowed.
- No fires except in Quarry approved grills
- Smoking is permitted only in the parking lot
- No swimming unless lifeguards are on duty
- The water is to be cleared immediately when the lifeguards whistle is blown for break. There will be a break every hour, approximately 15 minutes in length or at the discretion of the manager.
- A responsible person must accompany all children 5 and under in the water. A responsible person must accompany anyone regardless of age not demonstrating ability to handle themselves in the water.
- Everyone under 16 years of age or not demonstrating ability to handle themselves in the water is required to pass the swimming competency test each year before they will be allowed into the deep swimming area of the Quarry.
- No personal floatation devices, including those attached to a swimsuit.
- Diving board rules are posted at the entrance to the deep area.
- No running, loud radios/electronic devices or hazardous activities are permitted.
- The Quarry will be closed when electrical storms occur. Upon the lifeguards order, the water is to be cleared and everyone is to take shelter until such time as the Quarry management re-opens the facility.
- The Quarry management, including lifeguards or Quarry Board members reserves the right to ask anyone involved in disorderly or disrespectful behavior, to do out of water time, clean-up jobs, to leave immediately or other reasonable disciplinary actions.
- The Boston Township Community Service League reserves the right to revoke the pass of anyone who does not obey the rules.
- Participation in any and all activities at the Quarry is at the participant’s own risk.
